

International architecture conferences in 9 European countries across 3 months

SHARE Architects sets the scene in the following months for discussions, lectures, debates on "Transforming the world through architecture" - this year's overall theme.

Internationally loved and renown speakers are set to participate and share excellence in architecture on interests of the moments such as urban development, integration of new technologies, sustainability, as well as views on the future of architecture.

We commit to organizing all postponed SHARE conferences from the first part of the year and we look forward to meeting more than 5000 architects and engineers, members of the SHARE community, during the 9 international conferences in 9 European countries across 3 months; to discussing, debating and exchanging views on topics of the moment; to encouraging and discovering new innovative projects, that are still to be completed, through the "SHARE Future Project Awards".

SHARE Future projects Awards are addressed to the trio: architect, contractor, investor.

SHARE Architects, together with the Bulgarian Chamber of Architects (CAB), Cyprus Architects Association, Hellenic Institute of Architecture in Greece, Budapest Chamber of Architects, Union of Architects of The Republic of Moldova, Romanian Order of Architects, Union of Architects of Serbia, Chamber of Architecture and Spatial Planning of Slovenia, and Association of Architects of Slovakia, organizes the "SHARE Future Project Awards", competition for projects in developing from Bulgaria, Cyprus, Greece, Hungary, The Republic of Moldova, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovakia.

Transforming the world through architecture pre-event webinar series

For the past 2 months, we have welcomed over 50 international guest speakers, bonded and brought together more than 1000 architects and SHARE community members in our pursuit of uniting through architecture, of staying together, even apart. SHARE pre-event Webinar Series has had 10 editions dedicated to individual SHARE countries from Central and Eastern Europe. Focused on this year's theme, the webinars have offered audience members a piece of what the SHARE conferences will bring to light.

For an unlimited time, you can watch the webinar series at: learn.share-architects.com, the new online learning platform dedicated to the continuous education and development of young and senior architects.
