SHARE Architects Days Concept

SHARE Architects Days is the first trade show event dedicated to presenting and promoting architecture offices to potential investors and clients of architectural services. The main focus will be on the virtual exhibition and the booths of various architecture studios, whilst the rest of the program will include specialized technical presentations, case studies, leadership and office management lectures. The content of the event is built up to offer knowledge and valuable information to both representatives of architecture offices and investors through direct communication and contact between participants.

On this line of thought, the event will be hosted on an online dedicated platform on which registered participants, exhibitors, and speakers have access among many others to networking tools, 1 on 1 video meetings and speed networking tables.

Florin Mindirigiu, Founder of SHARE Architects:

“The concept of SHARE Architects Days was created based on the surprising results of the study conducted by SHARE Architects on the degree of knowledge of the role of the architects and how to choose one, based on a sample of potential beneficiaries of architectural services in Central and Eastern Europe. At the same time, we believe that there is an unused potential of expression in the architectural profession in Central and Eastern European region and that architects could benefit from more representativeness on a European and global level achieved through proper means of communication and networking. Based on these premises, we have launched SHARE Architects Days where we aim to virtually bring together a large part of the architecture offices from the countries of The Central, South - Eastern European where SHARE Architects is present. “
