BULGARIA ARCHITECTURE AWARDS

BULGARIAN ARCHITECTURAL AWARDS

PURPOSE OF THE COMPETITION

Bulgarian Architectural Awards aim to promote the most valuable realized architectural projects in our country, to distinguish their authors - the architects and the uniqueness of their idea with an emphasis on the quality of architecture, aesthetics, innovations used. In addition, there is the originality of the concept and sustainability of the respective project for improving the quality of life; the significance of the projects for the social, cultural, and economic life, forming the modern vision of the cities as a part of the architectural heritage of Bulgaria.

REWARDING

The winner of the Bulgarian Architectural Awards prize will receive a specially made statuette and a diploma accompanied by a certificate with reviews from the international jury. The winners of the special awards will be awarded a diploma accompanied by a certificate with reviews of the jury.

The international jury will determine the winner of the prize Bulgarian Architectural Awards among the nominated candidates. The author of the winning project will be awarded during the Gala celebration.

During the final phase, during the Gala celebration, three more special prizes will be announced.

JUDGING

The first stage covers the process of selection by an architectural board, which evaluates the submitted projects on the basis of architectural, aesthetic, and technical qualities and supplemented by the social, cultural and economic significance of their projects as a quality of life.

The second stage includes the presentation of the selected projects proposed by the nomination board.

The projects are presented by the designer or the design team to the jury and the audience of the International Architectural and Engineering Forum SHARE - Sofia. The presentations will be within 15 minutes.

In the final phase of the competition, an international jury will determine the winner of the Bulgarian Architectural Awards among the nominated candidates. The author of the winning project will be awarded during the Gala celebration. During the final phase, during the Gala celebration, three more special prizes will be announced.
