

KICK-OFF THE PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

We officially launched the 2023 programme with a SHARE premiere in the Republic of Moldova, in Chisinau, at the end of February. There are already three major events coming up this month - in Tirana, Pristina and Bratislava. Can you believe spring is here? Neither can we! But we did feel it in the excitement of our community, in the joy of meeting each other face to face. Find out more in this newsletter.

ARCHITECTURAL INTELLIGENCE

extensive and controversial discussions: Architectural intelligence what, how and where. In order to understand the role of algorithms in the construction of our culture, but also the paradigmatic and transformative leap of computational systems in reshaping the field of architecture, Igloo has outlined a coherent dossier in which a series of architects, theorists and philosophers have been interviewed. Neil Leach, Matias del Campo, Bolojan Daniel, Carlos Navarro, George Guida, Constantin Vică, Bogdan Zaha and Claudiu Bârsan invited by SHARE Architects and Andreea Robu-Movila, analyse and highlight a wide range of issues and territories: The problems of the creative agent, algorithmic autonomy and imagination, machine culture and AI ethics. This dossier is based on the Architectural Intelligence conference series supported by SHARE Architects at the Bucharest International Architecture Forums in 2021 and 2022. More
